Canadian Cents 1920-2012: Collector's Canadian Cents Folder

Synopsis

House your entire Canadian small cent collection in one folder. This folder's large format holds all the small cents issued since 1920 - while the competitor's smaller size requires two folders for the same date range.

Customer Reviews

This album works great for my needs. I love how it fits all of the canadian small pennies minted into it, instead of having to buy three or four volumes for them. It is pretty hard to fit the older small pennies in it, so I use a washcloth and the blunt side of a large pantbrush to get the stubborn ones into the slots. The washcloths helps me to not scratch the coins and the paintbrush...well, that was what I had lying around.

This item has everything I want in a coin folder at a reasonable cost. It has a space for each coin and 1920-2012 is more extensive than other similar coin folders. It also has space for a set of type coins extending over the same period. In all a very complete showcase for my Canadian penny collection.

1920-2012 official Canadian cents. I had purchased a few others from Whitmans and decided to get more for my coin collection. All the folders I have purchased from Whitmans are always very well made. With them being hard covered they should last a long time. The coins snap into place with ease.

This coin folder is of excellent quality. I have a few Warman's folders in U.S. currency, but this folder is great in quality and price. The red color leaves a really attractive finish and the section for obverse editions of George V, George VI, and Queen Elizabeth II are a nice touch. The holes did seem just a smidge too small, but the coins fit in with a bit of force. Again, taking the coins back out of the holes was a bit of a challenge, but overall the quality was excellent and the folder looks really nice. I would definitely buy again from this seller.

This folder covers all the issues of pennies from beginning to end. It also teaches one to know who was King/Queen when a particular coin was minted. I would love to find more of this type of folders. The coins fit in very well, easy to put in and hard to get out!!!

a great product at a very reasonable price. I prefer all of the Warman coin folders. They are better than their competition.

THIS WAS A BIRTHDAY GIFT AND THEY LOVED IT! THEY ARE INTO COLLECTING THE PENNYS FROM CANADA SO THIS WAS A SMART GIFT. DELIVERY WAS VERY PROMPT AND I WOULD USE THIS VENDOR AGAIN.

This coin folder is a fine addition to my collection. It is very attractive, sturdy, and presents the entire collection of Canadian small cents.
