Customer Reviews

This edition does NOT contain the same color plates that were in the 1922 edition published by Charles Scribner's Sons. If you are looking for those, you will have to find an old copy of the book. This edition claims that these pictures are better than the old ones, but in mu opinion, they are not

This book is a classic, with its appealing and loving descriptions of wild flowers. Perfect to take along on a spring time walk, even though it is not a now-traditional Peterson sort of guide. It gets to the heart of the flowers.

such a great find! I love books on wildflowers and vintage ones are so great to own. I love how it is poetic and factual. this book looks brand new, came swiftly and well packed. this is a must have for wildflower lovers

A friend had read the library copy of this book and wanted to purchase her own copy. She loved the format and would recommend it as a gift of those who like wildflowers good shape, just what I expected
