Emily Easton's Guide To Writing Wedding Thank-You Notes

Synopsis

Note-writing quickly goes from a to do to a done as note-writing expert Emily Easton gives exact wording for over 70 notes for shower and wedding gifts. Emily shows you how to thank Aunt Lois for the waffle iron and the Miller Family for the set of dishes. Her alphabetical listing makes it easy to find the right wording for over 70 gifts -- from an espresso maker and dishes to family heirlooms and steak knives. Plus, Emily's book gives wording for writing a note for a gift that's being returned for a gift you don't like for cash or a gift card when you aren't acquainted with the gift giver to the shower hostesses to special helpers and a lovely letter to your parents (they will cry)! Emily also shares how to keep track of gifts at showers and weddings what to always include in a note how to select stationery to write to a handy list of adjectives to use to describe the gift Emily's Best Tip a single sentence that's the best note writing advice ever Result? People who have spent time, money, and effort receive a note that makes them feel appreciated. And the bride and groom can quickly be finished with the note writing task.

Emily Easton's Guide to Writing Wedding Thank-You Notes! just did not have the time to think up creative ways to write thank you notes for each of my wedding gifts, but this cute guide did it for me! Emily Easton's Guide to Writing Thank You Notes was really clear and easy to follow, just put pen to paper and I was done in a flash. I looked at a couple of the other guides, but I didn't need 900 pages of stuff, and I didn't need to be super-formal for all of them, either. Seriously, my sister would have gotten suspicious if I'd addressed her anything like "Dearest Sibling." What even is that? LOL. Anyway, Emily's guide was a teeny-tiny price to pay for the time and energy I saved. I have a 2 year old and just did NOT need any more stress. Oh! Emily says to use an organizer for your shower. I totally agree, my tween-age niece was a lifesaver organizer. Just sayin! Every little bit helps :)

I just love this helpful book. This book has a different entry for every type of gift. This book has decreased the amount of time I spent on thank you notes. The notes are very special and individualized and I feel great returning the special thank you notes.

This book was a lifesaver!! I had been putting off my thank yous for way too long and was actually able to get all of them done in one weekend. There was a note I could copy almost word for word for pretty much every gift we got. I'm done done done!!!

One star for the content of this book that was actually helpful. Most of the info in this book is quite basic and the "creative" advice was useless. I did not find any of her thank you card examples helpful. They all sounded extremely phony and insincere. If I received a card written like the ones in this book, I would probably be slightly offended. Don't waste your money on this book. There is plenty of better, free advice available on the internet.
